Data Protection Policy And Procedure - 21 May 2018

What Personal Data does YDWSD hold? The Guild collects the name, address, telephone number, and email address of all current members via a paper membership form.

What do we do with the data? Member's data is used to distribute the YGWSD newsletter, and other information relating to The Guild's business.

Data Storage. Members personal data is collected via a paper membership form. The membership list maintained by Committee Members and held in a database on Mailchimp, to facilitate the distribution of YGWSD communications. Mailchimp is an online service that allows the Committee to hold members personal data securely, in one place, and distribute information about our activities.

How long do we keep data? Membership forms and the membership list is retained for two months following the end of year of membership.

Data Sharing. Members personal data is used for managing membership renewals and annual payments. Members personal data is not used for commercial purposes. Members personal data is not distributed to any third party without their consent.

I agree that my personal data can be used as described above.
